COLTON'S

MISSIONARY MAP OF THE WORLD.

MORE than thirty years ago we prepared and published, under the especial auspices of the late Rev. Dr. Armstrong, Secretary of the A. B. C. F. M., a large Missionary Map of the World, of same size as the one now issued. Its manufacture as a single sheet, six feet by twelve, was an experiment throughout, and though the result was comparatively crude in appearance, its use proved a means of increasing the interest of the churches in the great religious work being carried on in distant lands, as well as a medium for imparting much valuable and suggestive information. The plates of that map were destroyed, and it has been out of print for many years.

Repeated calls for another map of similar character have been made from time to time by the Secretaries of our leading Missionary Societies, and by many active Sunday-school workers, and these we have long been preparing to answer.

The work has grown on our hands, and from a simple general representation of the missionary field, as at first contemplated, it has developed into the most complete map of the kind ever made, both in appearance and in the extent and accuracy of its information. In size it is $6\frac{1}{2}$ by 12 feet. It is printed in oil colors, on fine cloth manufactured and finished expressly for this purpose. The names of the central stations of all Protestant Missionary Societies, both American and foreign, are shown in bold lettering easily read from a distance of several feet. The stations of American Societies are distinguished by being underlined in green, and those of other Societies by a line of red color, so that, without the least confusion, these important facts are prominently presented to the eye at first glance. The corners of the map are utilized by being filled with statistics of population of the grand divisions and their sub-divisions.

While for general uses the selection of names on the map will be found all sufficient, there are occasions when the interest of churches and Sunday-schools is centered on local work in places that could not be shown on the map. To supply the information thus called for is the aim of this Manual: and it is believed that the simple plan of its construction will be readily understood, and that, in connection with the map, it will supply the facts desired.

In regard to all the great Societies, this list is as perfect as the official reports from which it is compiled. It is to be regretted that these reports are not uniform in amount and kind of details presented, for some specify only stations permanently occupied by trained missionaries, while others enumerate their smallest out-stations but occasionally visited; nor is there always evidence to determine the relative importance of the names given. We have therefore attempted to embrace every name mentioned in these reports without classifying them into grades.

It has been a problem not easily solved, to know where to draw the line between home and foreign work. Thus, throughout the British Possessions in North America, English as well as Canadian Societies have an extensive system of missions among their English speaking population, especially in the more sparsely settled districts. These, as well as the strictly Home Missions in the United States; those of some European Societies whose work, though extensive, is confined to their own country; and others among the Jews, etc., in many cities of Great Britain and elsewhere, are omitted both from the map and from this list. On the other hand, we have, especially throughout Continental Europe, many churches receiving only pecuniary aid from this country or from Great Britain, that are embraced. We have also shown some of the many missions among the Indians, both in the United States and in British territory, when doing so has not tended to introduce confusion.

The orthography adopted is generally that used in the reports of the Society occupying the station. On some accounts a uniform system might have been better, but as the most frequent reference to any name will be made by those connected with the organization supporting the station, it has been thought best to use that spelling of the name known to its special friends.

The compiler of the map and of this manual would here express his obligations to the "Mission Atlas of Dr. R. Grundemann," without which it would have been difficult to have reached any degree of completeness in his work, notwithstanding the interested and very earnest aid which has been cheerfully rendered by all from whom information has been sought.

Full reports of the Societies named below have been examined, and all stations mentioned therein are included in this list. Besides these, other Societies, both American and foreign, having separately but few, but in the aggregate a very considerable number of stations, are embraced and grouped under one designation. The abbreviation attached to each is the one used in the following pages.

EXPLANATION.

The names of stations that are shown on the map are in Small Caps., thus—LUCKNOW. The name in brackets, immediately following other names, is that of the town shown on the map near to which the station is situated, thus—Abeih (Beirut). The name of the country, or geographical division, follows, then the abbreviations of the names of the Missionary Society or Societies occupying the station named, and finally the reference letter and figure by which it may be at once located on the map; thus, each space between two parallels being lettered on the borders, and each space between two meridians numbered on the equator, find the number and letter called for, and extend the spaces indicated to an intersection, and we have the area in which the place is situated.

The price of the map, with a copy of this Manual, is

TWENTY DOLLARS A COPY.

Orders for it will be received by all dealers in religious and Sunday-school books, or may be sent direct to the Publishers,

G. W. & C. B. COLTON & CO.,

172 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

If this Missionary Map of the World proves to be as acceptable and useful to the churches as it is believed it will, the publishers propose the early preparation and issue of large Missionary Maps of India, China and Japan, and Turkey etc., on the same general plan. With this object in view they invite from all friends of Missions suggestions looking toward the carrying out of this scheme in the most useful and satisfactory manner.

MOUNT SINAI.

No 5.

Map of the Peninsula of Mount Sinai.

Illustrating the Wanderings of the Israelites in their Journey from Egypt to Canaan, with a plan, on a large scale, of the VICINITY OF MOUNT SINAI, from the Ordnance Survey, 72 x 52 inches.
 Price, mounted, varnished, and on rollers.. $7.00
 Printed on cloth..... 5.00
 Postage, when sent by mail..... 15

This map exhibits the results of the researches of the English and American expeditions for the exploration of this interesting region; and a comparison with any of the previously-published maps will show how entirely conjectural the greater part of the detailed information hitherto shown and accepted as fact has been. Its large scale, bold lettering, and skillful execution, have combined to produce a map which will fully meet the want long felt by all who have attempted to teach the narrative of the Exodus from the small and very imperfect publications of the kind hitherto offered.

The detailed plan of the vicinity of Mt. Sinai is printed in color, which brings out its peculiar topography in a very striking manner, and can not fail to impress the student with the details as well as the general features of this scene of wonders.

The Peninsula of Mt. Sinai.

A Map to Illustrate the Wanderings of the Israelites from Egypt to Canaan. For hand use. Printed in Color on fine cards, size $5\frac{1}{4}$ x $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and put up in packages, each containing 10 maps. Price, per pack.....40 cents.

Upon this map all the stations along the route of the Israelites that have been identified are truly located, and the remainder are tabulated with explanatory note. It is an accurate reduction of the large map before mentioned, and will be found a great aid to the proper explanation and understanding of this interesting portion of the Bible.

PALESTINE.

No. 1.

Eight-Sheet Map of Palestine.

With Topographical Plan of the City of Jerusalem, and a Plan of the Vicinity of Jerusalem. Size 116 x 81 inches.

Price, printed on cloth.....$12.50

Postage, when forwarded by mail..... 30

Before perfecting our present processes for printing on cloth, the production of maps of this great size was seldom attempted, and, if manufactured, the difficulty and cost of transporting them, and their liability to damage in use, rendered them very objectionable. Our present plans remedy all these defects, and we are enabled to present a map that will be welcomed in every school having room for its exhibition.

This being distinctively a wall map, all extraneous and irrelevant information has been omitted, and so large, clear, and distinct a style has been adopted, both for the topography and lettering, that everything upon it is clearly distinguishable from every part of a large school-room.

The geographical base of the map is in strict conformity with the most recent explorations and surveys, both English and American, and the identification of places previously unknown has enabled us to fix the boundaries of the tribes with much more precision than has before been possible. The topography of the plan of the city of Jerusalem is minutely shown, but this being printed in color, the confusion sometimes experienced by those unaccustomed to use topographical maps of the ordinary style is entirely obviated.

We have also added a profile to show the elevation of the country above the Mediterranean, and the depression of the valley of the Jordan and Dead Sea, and, for purposes of comparison, diagrams of Palestine and of portions of our own country upon the same scale. In fact, every effort has been made to make this an improvement on any map that has preceded it, and its great superiority will be readily acknowledged after the most general examination.

No. 3.

Topographical Map of Palestine.

With Plans of the Peninsula of Mount Sinai, the Environs of Jerusalem, and Topographical Plan of the City of Jerusalem. 71 x 52 inches.

Price, mounted with rollers and varnished. . $7.00

“ on cloth..... 5.00

This map has been prepared expressly for the use of Sunday-schools and Bible-classes. Its large size has enabled the author to show an unusual amount of detail, and at the same time make both lettering and topography bold and distinct. All the results of the latest explorations are shown, and both ancient and modern names of towns, rivers, etc. The names mentioned in the Bible are given in one style of letter, the other ancient names in another style, and the modern names in still another; thus, without confusion, comprising the same as three distinct maps. It is colored, to show the original partition among the tribes, as well as the later Roman divisions. Figures on the face of the map show elevation and depression from the Mediterranean.

Special pains have been taken to collect information for the plan of the city of Jerusalem, especially in regard to its present topographical features, which will here be found fully and clearly exhibited.

Topographical Map of Palestine.

With Plans of the City of Jerusalem and of the Environs of Jerusalem, chiefly from the Maps and Drawings of Robinson and Smith, with corrections and additions furnished by the Rev. Dr. E. Robinson. 43 x 32 inches.

Price, mounted and varnished.....$3.00

This map is elegantly engraved on steel, and is peculiarly adapted to family use and the use of theological students. While the large map is especially adapted for the school or lecture room, this is more convenient for family use and private study.

These maps are constructed as auxilliary to the larger and fuller ones before mentioned (Nos. 1 and 3), and are not intended to supercede them. Their peculiarity consists in confining their information to one period of Sacred History. It has been found that, while for general purposes maps combining both eras may be used advantageously, for special instruction the presence of names mentioned exclusively in the New Testament serve only to distract the attention of the pupil while studying Old Testament history, and, likewise, that the exhibition of tribal names and the large number of towns which are only referred to in the Old Testament, are very objectionable while studying the narratives of the later period.

Nos. 6 and 8 are complimentary, and are intended to be sold together. Nos. 7 and 9, of the same eras and general plan as the before-mentioned, also make a set. The former are for wall use, the latter for use in the class, their size being such that the teacher can easily handle them, while the lettering is of such size and character that even in a Bible-class room every item can be easily discerned at a distance.

In information, size, execution, and price, we have endeavored to answer an earnest call, and the very warm commendations accorded them wherever used or exhibited, show how nearly we have met the demand.

Map of Palestine.

With a Plan of the Peninsula of Mt. Sinai and Arabia Petrea. 18 x 14 inches. Price, printed on thin paper, and folded in cloth cover, with gilt side stamp.....50 cents.

Map of Palestine Before the Conquest.

Map of Palestine After the Conquest.

As Divided among the Twelve Tribes, with Plan of the Vicinity of Jerusalem on an enlarged scale.

New Testament Map of Palestine,

WITH TABLE OF DISTANCES, ETC.

The three maps named above are printed on cards for hand use in Sunday-school and Bible-classes, and handsomely colored. Size, $5\frac{1}{4} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Each kind is put up in packages containing ten maps.

Price, per pack.....40 cents.

These maps, though necessarily of small scale, contain a great amount of information; but being engraved in the very best manner, they are all plain and easily read. They are intended for hand use in classes, and for home study; and experience has proved that where the members of a class are each supplied with one of these maps, their interest in the lesson, and, consequently, its usefulness to them, has been greatly increased.

“Palestine before the Conquest” shows the habitat of each of the nations then occupying the country, and the names of cities mentioned in connection with their history, while the coloring exhibits at a glance, by different tints, the central elevated districts, flanked on the west by the coast plains and lowlands, and on the east by the remarkable depression of the Jordan and the Dead Sea.

“Palestine after the Conquest” shows the tribal allotments in accordance with the most recent surveys, and a full selection of places mentioned in the narratives of Joshua, the Judges, and of the kingdoms. The enlarged plan of the vicinity of Jerusalem illustrates the district around the Sacred City with detail from Bethlehem to Bethel.

The "New Testament Map of Palestine" contains all the names mentioned in the Gospels, and, by coloring, the Roman divisions of that period. A table of distances adds interest and value to the map.

BIBLE LANDS.

No. 2.

Map Illustrating the Travels of St. Paul.

Eight sheets. Size, 116 x 81 inches.

Price, on cloth.....	$12.50
Postage, when sent by mail.....	30

This is the largest map of these countries ever published, and bears the same relation to others of the same era that the "eight sheet Palestine" does to other maps of that region. The routes of St. Paul are distinctly shown by strong lines of different colors; the names of places visited in his various missionary tours are lettered very boldly to distinguish them from other ancient names, and the few modern names that are introduced to make the identification with places of present interest more easy, are in a still lighter style of lettering. The central missionary stations of all Protestant societies in this region are shown by bright colored spots, thus adding another feature of great interest. This map fills a place never before fully occupied.

Map of the Lands mentioned in the Bible.

Especially Illustrating the Travels of St. Paul.
 71 x 52 inches. Price, mounted with rollers and varnished. $7.00
 Price, on cloth. 5.00

In the preparation of this map the author has had the idea of utility prominently before him. The area embraced includes both New Testament and Old Testament countries, taking in Rome on the west, Egypt on the south, and the mouth of the Euphrates on the east. The lettering is bold and plain, and shows both the ancient and modern names of towns, rivers, mountains, etc. The routes of St. Paul in his several missionary tours are plainly indicated by distinct colored lines. All the present Protestant missionary stations are also shown by spots of color, thus adding a very interesting feature. No more instructive lesson can be taught to a Sunday-school than the story of the life of Paul, pointing out his journeys from place to place on the map. Even the infant classes may be thus interested, and the lesson thus taught will never be forgotten.

Bible Map.

A Map of the Countries mentioned in the New Testament, and of the Travels of the Apostles, with ancient and modern names; with general plan on a reduced scale of all the countries mentioned in the Old Testament. 32 x 25 inches.
 Price, mounted with rollers and varnished. . . $2.50
 " on cloth. 1.50
 Carefully compiled and beautifully engraved on steel, this map will be found a most appropriate and useful ornament to the study, library, or sitting-room, and meets the wants of the Bible-class where there is not room for the before-mentioned larger map.

The Travels of St. Paul.

A Map for the use of Sunday-schools. Printed on cards, handsomely colored, with the routes of Paul's different journeys clearly defined. Size, $5\frac{1}{4} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Put up in packages containing ten each. Price, per pack.....40 cents.

This map is intended for hand use in the Sunday-school, each member to be supplied with a copy for home-study as well as for instruction in the class. All the names mentioned in the journeys of the Apostles are clearly shown, and the routes themselves printed in colored lines, with arrows indicating the direction of travel. Our assortment of Pocket Maps is the finest and most extensive in the world, comprising about 250 varieties, of all styles, including County and Township Maps of all the States; Sectional Maps of all that have been thus surveyed; and Railroad Maps of various sections, as well as of the whole country. Foreign countries are well shown, both in detail and by Grand Divisions. All these Maps are engraved in the best style on copper plates, nicely printed on the best quality of thin, but very strong, map paper, made expressly for us, beautifully colored, and put up in neat embossed cloth covers of convenient size, with side titles in gold. They can be had at most first-class book-stores, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price.

Mounted or Wall Maps.—Our assortment of Wall Maps for offices, libraries, schools, etc., is more extensive than that of any other house in the country. It embraces the only large maps of the World, and of Foreign Countries, published in America, and is full and complete in regard to general and special maps of the several sections of the United States.

We also furnish maps published by others. Classical maps for colleges and schools, and foreign maps, supplied or imported to order.

Colton's General Atlas of the World.—The Maps of this Atlas have been drawn with great care, and engraved in the highest style of the art; and the letter-press descriptions which accompany each map contain valuable information concerning the countries delineated. It is a work of science as to drawing and correctness; a work of art as to clearness and beauty.

P. S.—By a recently perfected process we are enabled to furnish expeditiously, and at small cost, from plates already engraved, maps to accompany Reports, etc. These maps will be fitted up with borders, titles, etc., and made in all respects as complete as if engraved especially for the purpose.
